European Athletics President's Welcome Message

I am very pleased to welcome everyone to the 34th edition of the European Athletics Indoor Championships, especially as it is the first time that this competition will be staged in Serbia.

Serbia becomes the 14th European Athletics Member Federation to stage this event, the most prestigious and important competition in our calendar after the European Athletics Championships.

However, Belgrade does already have an important place in European indoor athletics history as it staged the last edition of the predecessor of this event, the European Indoor Games, at the Belgrade Fair in 1969.

Its success was an important stepping stone in the creation of the European Indoor Athletics Championships the following year and, for me, it has a special place in my heart because, as a young man, I followed those championships closely not least because Norway won a medal in Belgrade that year.

Moving from the past to the present, and also looking to the future, these championships are hugely important for European Athletics and it is especially gratifying that so many of Europe's top performers committed themselves to competing here from the start of the winter.

In addition to being the first major athletics event of the year, Belgrade 2017 is the biggest event on the continental calendar for our sport until next year's European Athletics Championships, when athletics will be at the forefront of what promises to be the greatest multi-sport event staged solely for European nations.

Many of the champions and medallists here will be looking to repeat their success in Berlin in 17 months' time, and those that missed out will no doubt be re-doubling their efforts in a bid to make the podium in the German capital.

Serbia has been very active in staging European Athletics events in recent years – we were in Belgrade in December 2013 for that year's SPAR European Cross Country Championships – so with such experience I am sure these championships will be splendidly organised and I am looking forward immensely to the three days of competition.

We are very grateful to the Athletics Federation of Serbia, the city of Belgrade and everyone else involved with the Local Organising Committee for all their hard work and commitment to successfully staging this event.

Local Organising Committee President's Welcome Message

Dear Friends
Athletics in Serbia has a long tradition which dates back to the 19th century and we can proudly point to the fact that we made our Olympic debut more than a century ago in 1912.

Now, in the 21st century, our sport in Serbia continues to grow and the evidence for this can be seen in our commitment to organised international events.

Belgrade was memorably the host for the 1962 European Athletics Championships and Serbia has more recently staged the European Athletics U20 Championships and the SPAR European Cross Country Championships, as well as many regional events such as the Balkan Championships.

Consequently, it gives me great pride to welcome everybody to this year's European Athletics Indoor Championships, the biggest athletics competition to be organised in Serbia for more than 50 years.

My team and I, with the support of the Government of the Republic of Serbia and the City of Belgrade, have been working very hard to make sure everything runs smoothly and I'm convinced that the championships will be superbly organised.

On a personal note, the European Athletics Indoor Championships have a special place in my heart.

My 400m gold medal at the 1992 edition in the Italian city of Genoa was the biggest triumph of my career.

In addition to my personal delight and pride at winning, I remember what this event meant to all the athletes that were there.

Friendships were built that extended beyond the athletics arena and still exist today. It was also the start of a new era, both from a sporting perspective, and there was a great sense of optimism and hope for the future.

The European Athletics Indoor Championships has grown considerably in the intervening quarter of a century. In 1992 there were 439 athletes from 35 nations, this year there will be more than 600 athletes from possibly all of European Athletics' Member Federations.

I hope that you will enjoy in the coming days the spectacle that we prepare for you.

Welcome to Serbia and Belgrade!

Slobodan Branković

Local Organising Committee President

Acknowledgments

This is an updated version of the 2015 book which was created for the European Athletics Indoor Championships in Prague.

All data however has been completely refreshed from the database to avoid mistakes in the update process. Problems/mistakes in the last edition have also been corrected.

An important fact is that for this book only championships called “European Indoor Championships” were considered and therefore the European Indoor Games 1966-1969 are not a part of this book.

All questions and corrections are welcomed by email to the editor: jani@tilastopaja.fi.

Your comments and suggestions for further improvements are much appreciated.

European Indoor U20 Records

(as at 11 Feb)

European Athletics Council decided that the 2012 European Junior Indoor Best List would be the basis for the ratification of the new records category.

Performances in bold are the only so far ratified records. All other performances correspond to the 10th performance of the 2012 indoor list and shall be taken as reference for ratification.

Any performances equal or better than those below listed, can be ratified as a new European Record in case all the required conditions are met.
